Girls Preparing For Leap Year

THE 1952 LEAP year open season on the ammarried male has already begun.

It was launched with the usual zany business of picking the ten "most wanted men" in America-and a flurry of expert advice on how the average girl can pin the guy of her own choice with a matrimonial hammerlack.

To an enlooker it would seem like it's going to be a rather confusing leap year. For there is so far no agree. ment on who are the top ten marital prospects. And as the term for how best to enter a hus.

band, the "experts" contradict each other. One says, "be aggressive" One says, "be feminine and dependent." Whom can a trust. ing young girl believe?

TWO LISTS OF the ten most desirable bachelors have hit my desk-these lists come out with the same regularity that the swallows return to Capistrano-and they add up to 20 men. Nobody made both lists. These are the lucky ten named by Miss Ruth Marr, president of the Bachelor Girls of America:

J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief (he's on every year); Martin H. Kennelly, mayor of Chicago; Elliot Lawrence, band leader; John Ringling North, the circus man: Bobby Thomson, basehall hero; Montgomery Clift, movie actor; Howard Hughes, industrialist (another hardy perennial); Ed Luckenbach Jr., shipping heir; Ben Grauer, radio commentator; Warren Magnuson, U.S. senator.

But a pole of 500 professional models here by Helen Fraser, head of the Barbizon Model. ing School, named these ten:

KIRK DOUGLAS, movie star; Henry Garrard, Broadway actor; Rudolph Halley, television star and New York City Council presidept; Frank Farrell, Manhattan columnist; Milton Berle, another television figure; Steve Ohis is losing farms by the land going back to woodland, he by modern farm machinery and Hannagan, who rose from press agent to pubmodern farming practices which lieist; Winthrop Rocketeller, businessman; is skidding downward. My dictionary defines a bachelor as "a man who has not married," but it may be a bit old-fashioned. A giance at these lists shows they have several widowers or grass widow. ers. However, in leap year the girls can be excused for stretching their definition a bit to cover every possible target.

Sometimes good, grey Barney Baruch must weary of finding his name on lists such as these. He's been included in all but "the ten men mostly likely to succeed." And that is one he doesn't have to worry about.

BUT HOW IS A GAL who doesn't know these 20 blue-chip prospects going to nail her own favorite unwilling Joe? Miss Marr says pachelors are frightened by "Iemale aggression and independence," because it threatens their own need to be master. "If women are to succeed in getting husbands," she adds, "they must be feminine in every way and show a dependent attitude toward the men they seek. Give a man the rems and he will drive a woman right up to the altar." But Miss Fraser says:

"Every man wants to get got. To eatch the man of 1952 be aggressive but pleasant." Maybe a mixture of the two theories might help, girls. Just throw your arms around the guy's neck-and hold on until he gives up. This has worked millions of times
